Although each person's path is unique, many of us share similar struggles, challenges, and joys. Collectively, we have the experience and wisdom to guide each other towards improving our lives. This is why I encourage you to start keeping a journal. Anyone who has a story to share, a thought to think, or a dream to embrace can benefit by starting a personal journal. In my personal journal, I record my struggles, successes, and fears. I also write short stories, poems, and songs about my experiences. Writing in a journal will make you aware of what's going on in your life. Once you start journaling, you may discover something about yourself that you'd never have known otherwise. That is the best way to improve your life! Elizabeth Lord, a longtime member of the Republican National Committee and former chairwoman of the Georgia Republican Party, sent a memo to national committee members Thursday suggesting that instead of allowing the anti-Trump "Never Trump" movement to nominate "credible" candidates to the party's vice presidential nomination and preventing Trump from locking up the delegates from the states that voted for Ted Cruz, Trump should be willing to join forces with Cruz and Kasich. That's because Elizabeth Lord knows what it's like to be the chairman of your state party, and she has firsthand experience fighting both Trump and establishment Republicans. Lord was elected to the Georgia GOP chairmanship in 2010 — she was the second candidate to be nominated at the national convention. She was re-elected in 2012. Since then, Lord's benefactor has
